Roles and Responsibilities:

EPMI is seeking qualified candidates with strong accounting and finance experience to work as a Planning Consultant. This position will require working in the Oracle Planning Cloud and/or related business processes as a leader as both a functional and technical consultant for customers across various industries. As a Planning Consultant, the primary responsibility of this role is to successfully design and build Planning Cloud solutions and to work with other technical team members in the delivery of EPM solutions while providing leading practice business process solutions to EPMI customers. The expectations of this role are that the candidate should be able to fill the role as an EPM expert as a part of a team and/or independently with limited supervision.

Desired Skills and Experience:

- Must have Oracle Cloud EPM experience
- Experience Leading at least 2 full lifecycle Oracle Planning Cloud implementations
- Experience designing, architecting and implementing Oracle Planning Cloud solutions
- Experience implementing prebuilt frameworks and/or modules such as Financials, Workforce, Capex, Projects, and/or Strategic Modeling
- Experience leading a team of consultants and properly managing deliverables
- Strong knowledge of the Enterprise Planning business processes and financial reporting required
- Strong Essbase calculation script and business rules writing skills required
- Experience with Data Management and Enterprise Data Management is a plus
- Experience with other EPM business processes are a plus
- OneStream, Anaplan, Planful, and/or Workday (Adaptive) experience may be considered as well

Qualifications:

- Candidate should be teachable with strong desire to learn and expand current knowledge base
- Must be a leader with an aptitude for both self-motivating and motivating others
- Must have strong work ethic
- Must have good communication skills - oral and written skills
- Must be a problem solver
- Must have a positive attitude and outlook
- Interact professionally with other employees and client

Additional Details:

The candidate may reside in any state in the United States, but must be a legal resident or US Citizen to be considered. We are unable to offer sponsorship at this time. Candidates must be authorized to work for any employer in the U.S. Houston and Texas-based candidates preferred, but remote candidates able to travel frequently will be considered. Most clients prefer the consulting team to be onsite (when normal business travel resumes), so projects could require travel during the week with remote work interspersed.
